It is submitted that while considering the draft Council note put up on the several important points requiring decision, by the Council at their meeting on 13.1.51., when Shri N.V. Babu Reddy, D.I.G. of Police, who was the Secretary for the Special Enquiry Committee, was also present under instructions, certain papers were handed over to him to forward his detailed report on certain points with instruction.

2) It is ascertained that the officer Sri N.V. Babu Reddy has, accordingly submitted his report with the file of papers, to the Hon'ble Chief Minister.

3) As parallel set of files with Refernce Notings had to be marked each time, when a question arose on the Report, on account of the non-availability of the Main file, the Chief Secretary was pleased to instruct that all the individual files may be collected and after marking the notings and correspondence datewar, to maintain his files only under 2 different cases Viz.

(1) Notings & Correspondence with the Ministry of States, Govt. of India.

(2) Notings & Correspondence mainly on the Main G.E.C. Report.

4) In View of the above, action is being taken to arrange them
